First or Primary Insurance is the policy that a claim goes to first. It can be your insurance, either privately obtained, through work or through a government program or it can be a spousal or partner's insurance that you are covered under.
Secondary Insurance is an insurance that may pick up the balance of claim amount that the primary insurance does not cover. It is important to understand that a claim must go to the primary insurance company first and once a payment response comes from it, then a claim for the balance can be made to the secondary.
